

Homeowner's Scorecard for Contractors

Use this handy scorecard to evaluate each contractor or sub-contractor you will be interviewing. Fill out this score card immediately after your interview. I have left a few extra lines for you to add any other questions you may feel is important to score.

You can print this out, write in each score and total it yourself — or use this interactive form. Click to type in contractor name and contact info. Click in the score box and type your score. This form will total the results for you. Do a "SAVE AS," rename and save for future reference.

Give each question a score of 1 thru 5 for each contractor

1 being the lowest score
5 being the highest score

Contractor's name: _____

Their contact info: _____

RANK	◀ First, rank the questions in the order of importance to you.	SCORE
	Positive reviews and recommendations from neighbors and friends.
	Better Business Bureau record (if they are a member).
	Explained their license, bond process and insurance info clearly.
	Rank their general experience in their field.
	Rank their experience with historical houses.
	Communicated appropriate levels of details about their process.
	Experience in completed home renovation projects like mine.
	Personality type I can work with on this project.
	Bid process and presentation was easy to understand.
	Thorough review of drawings, existing house, & understanding of the scope of my project.
	Passion or enthusiasm about my project.
	Turned in the construction bid in a timely manner.
	Construction bid was reasonable and within my budget.

This scorecard is meant to enhance, not replace, proper investigation of a contractor's credentials.

© Copyright Taylor Made Plans

TOTAL SCORE
--------------------	--